batted like Trojans, every man of the nine get-ting a hit, while Dungan secured four and the "grand old man" Anson rapped out three. Pitcher Sam Shaw, late of the Southern League, officiated in the "box" for the Chicagos. It was his debut in the major league, and when the sluggers he faced are taken into consideration it can be classed as a most successful one. The hall seemed to come over the plate as if it was longing to be hit, but our boys could neither takes place June 30. Mr. Reeves is a graduate bunt nor hit it out. O'Roorke, in trying to secrifice, sneaked in a safe bunt toward first the bases were filled. Everybody was talking at once and the bleachers arose en masse Sam Wise came to the bat. A straight up and down fly was the best. Sam could do, and a grown went up as the ball ascended on high in front of the plate. Dahlen came in, and, in trying to trap the ball and force Radford at the plate, made a sad mess of it, the ball bounding away from him, and Radford scored. Larkin T. Lumley P. H.
